

WALT plan our non-chronological report

Recap

What is a non-chronological report?

WALT plan our non-chronological report

Non-chronological Reports

Non-chronological Reports

A report is a text that gives facts and information about a particular subject that people will be interested in and would like to know more about.

©2017 www.melloo.co.uk

The image is a rectangular graphic with a green border. At the top, it says 'Non-chronological Reports' in a small black font. Below that is a green horizontal bar with the words 'Non-chronological Reports' in large, white, bold, sans-serif font. To the right of the text is a cartoon illustration of a young girl with brown hair in pigtails, wearing a blue shirt, grey skirt, and brown boots, holding a grey book. Below the illustration is the 'melloo' logo and the copyright information '©2017 www.melloo.co.uk'.

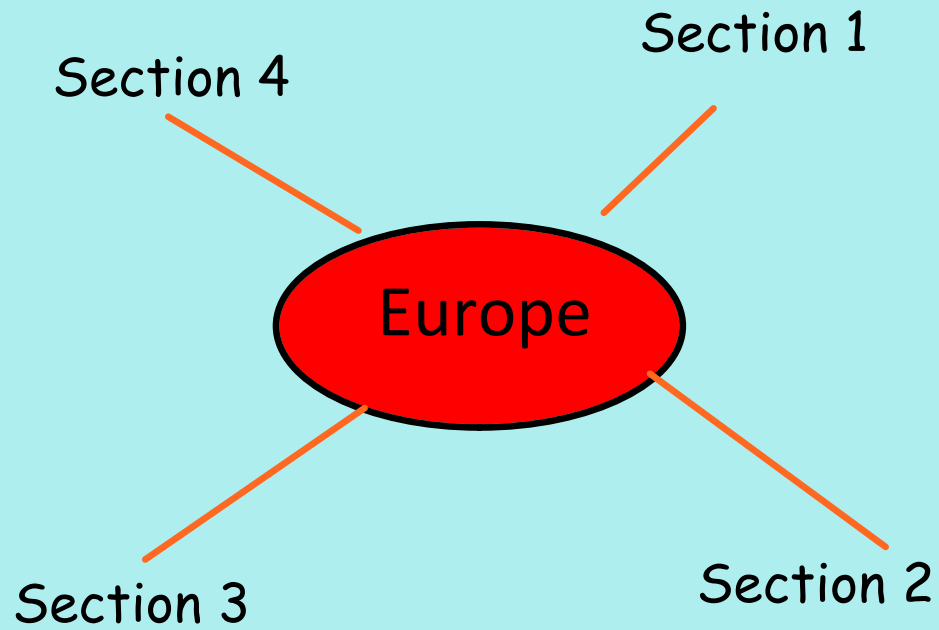

WALT plan our non-chronological report

Today, we are going to write a non-chronological report on Europe and the impact it has had on the world.

WALT plan our non-chronological report

What do you think our sub-sections would be?

This report would need to include all the knowledge we have used this half term.

WALT plan our non-chronological report

Our non-chronological report sections will be the following:

- Where is Europe located
- Physical features of Europe
- Climatic zones
- Impact of Europe on the rest of the world.

WALT plan our non-chronological report

Now that we have agreed on what our sub-sections would be, we need to gather our research and place the key information in each subsection.

Where would we find this information?

WALT plan our non-chronological report

Section 1: Where is Europe?

What information could we include in this section?

You may include this vocabulary in your plan

Northern hemisphere

arctic regions

equator

2nd largest

44 countries

continent

Atlantic Ocean

bordered by

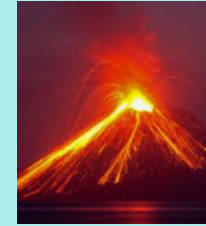

Black Sea

Mediterranean Sea

WALT plan our non-chronological report

Section 2: Physical features of Europe

What would we need to have in this section?

mountainous

rivers

fold mountains

coastlines

forests

natural resources

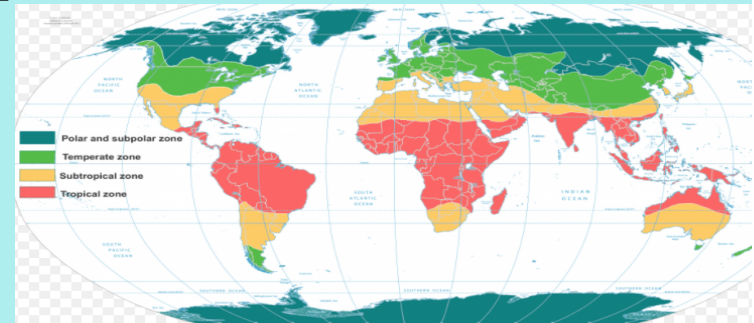

volcanoes

agriculture

WALT plan our non-chronological report

Section 3: Human geography

What would we need to have in this section? What key vocabulary?

population density

political borders

migration

cuisine

tourist attractions

languages

European Union

WALT plan our non-chronological report

Section 4: Impact of Europe on the rest of the world

What would we need to have in this section? What key vocabulary?

place names

Transatlantic

colonisation

slavery

abolition

languages around the world

WALT plan our non-chronological report

Task

Using your planning sheet, complete each sections that you would include in your non-chronological report. Don't forget to include all the vocabulary you would like to include in your non-chronological report.