

WALT: Use prepositional language in our resolution

What are prepositions?

Useful instruction words:

Prepositions are short words that are used before a noun, connecting it to another word.

You will be using prepositional language in your writing today.

Oct 14-11:19

WALT: Use prepositional language in our resolution

Last lesson, we described our threat. A humongous animal is inside the cave with us..

How are we going to solve this?

We could trick the animal?
 We could find an escape?
 What other solutions are there?

TTYP: Come up with two solutions

Oct 14-11:19

WALT: Use prepositional language in our resolution

*Parent choice to choose a resolution

We are going to trick the animal.

Om climbed up the wall and picked a bunch of the plant that the mammoth ate. We set a trail on the floor to lead the mammoth out of the cave. We are now safe again!

Oct 14-11:19

WALT: Use prepositional language in our resolution

Om climbed up the wall and picked a bunch of the plant that the mammoth ate. We set a trail on the floor to lead the mammoth out of the cave. We are now safe again!

TTYP: How can we make the writing better?
Can we use prepositional language? Adverbs?
Adjectives? Suspense? Will the plan work?

Oct 14-11:19

WALT: Use prepositional language in our resolution

Om climbed up the wall and picked a bunch of the plant that the mammoth ate. We set a trail on the floor to lead the mammoth out of the cave. Will the plan work? The mammoth stomped and walloped the first plant on the floor, the second plant on the floor. He exited the cave. We are now safe again!

Oct 14-11:19

WALT: Use prepositional language in our resolution

Oct 14-11:19

TASK

Write a resolution to your alternative ending.
Remember to use prepositional language to provide more detail.

Success Criteria:

- A resolution
- Prepositional language
- Punctuation
- Adjectives
- Verbs, adverbs

Oct 14-11:19

Plenary

Share your resolutions with your partner.
Have they used prepositional language?

Oct 14-11:19
