

Comparative language

What is its purpose?

What words would you use to compare things that are:

-similar

-different

Create your own sentences to make comparisons in the picture.

In contrast Yet Differs from But Alternatively On the other hand Although Whereas While however
Also Similarly Both Equally Likewise As well as Too In the same way

-Using the word mat, record examples of sentences that compare things that are alike and different.

-Avoid using the same language in your sentences!
