

Tuesday 20th October 2020

WALT use first person through drama.

Today we are going to be pretending to be Paddington Bear and practising using the first person to talk about what we did.

Tuesday 20th October 2020

WALT use first person through drama.

What is first person ?

First person is when you write something from your own point of view. When you write in first person you use the words "I" , "me" and "my" to tell the reader what you are doing.

Tuesday 20th October 2020

WALT use first person through drama.

What words in this text tell us that it is written in first person?

I woke up this morning then I went downstairs to eat my breakfast. I was feeling tired and hungry.

Tuesday 20th October 2020

WALT use first person through drama.

Let's recap our success criteria...

- Date
- Start with "Dear Diary,"
- Write in 1st Person ←
- Use past tense verbs
- Put events in order
- Use time adverbials
- Write about your feelings ←

Let's think about how Paddington felt in different parts of story...

Tuesday 20th October 2020

WALT use first person through drama.

One morning Paddington and Mr Gruber set out to see the Changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace.

How do you think Paddington felt at the beginning of the day?

How do you know?

Tuesday 20th October 2020

WALT use first person through drama.

In the end he tried crawling through the legs of the crowd, but by the time he got to the other side the band had passed by.

How do you think
Paddington felt when the band had gone?

How do you know?

Tuesday 20th October 2020

WALT use first person through drama.

Independent Task:

Write the answers to the interview questions written on your sheet as Paddington Bear.

Remember to write about how you felt and use "I" to write in the first person!

