

make

could

who

Can you read and write the high frequency words?

every

each

should

come

some

What sounds have we been learning this week?

wh

ph

Can you write them on your boards?

Our sound of the day is...

ew

What is the rhyme for this sound?

ew ew ew ew
ew ew ew ew

'ew' (chew the stew)
chew screw knew flew

Let's compare this sound to some very similar ones

Let's sound them!

ew

oo

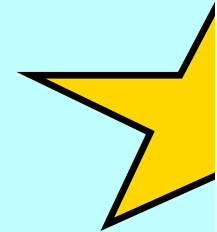

ue

Can you think of words for each of these sounds?

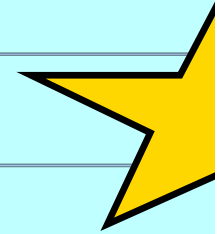

What's the same about them?

What's different about them?

CT notes: ew always comes at the end of words e.g. blew, chew, grew
..... and so is ue as in tissue, glue etc.

What words did Geraldine find?

What is the cow doing?

How might the cow be doing this?
Can you add an adverb?

'ew' (chew the stew)

chew
screw
knew
flew

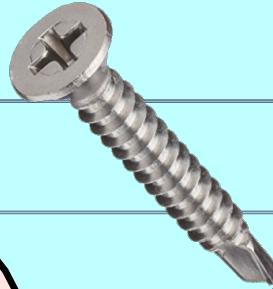

What is this

What can you see?

How might you describe it?

How many adjectives can you use in a sentence?

'ew' (chew the stew)

chew
screw
knew
flew

What is this?

'ew' (chew the
stew)

chew
screw
knew
flew

What can you see?

What might be inside?

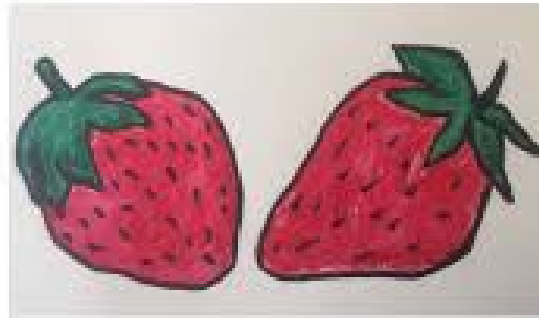

When might you eat this dish?

Let's read the story together!

How many 'ew'
words can you
spot?

He knew the gardener was going to be very cross so he quickly planted some more strawberries and the garden looked as good as new!

'ew' (chew the
stew)

chew
screw
knew
flew

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UJt--bwO4ls>

Can you read the 'ew' words?

chew

brew

flew

Andrew

crew

drew

nephew

view

screw

threw

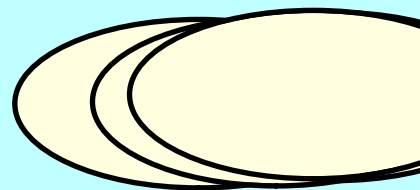

mildew

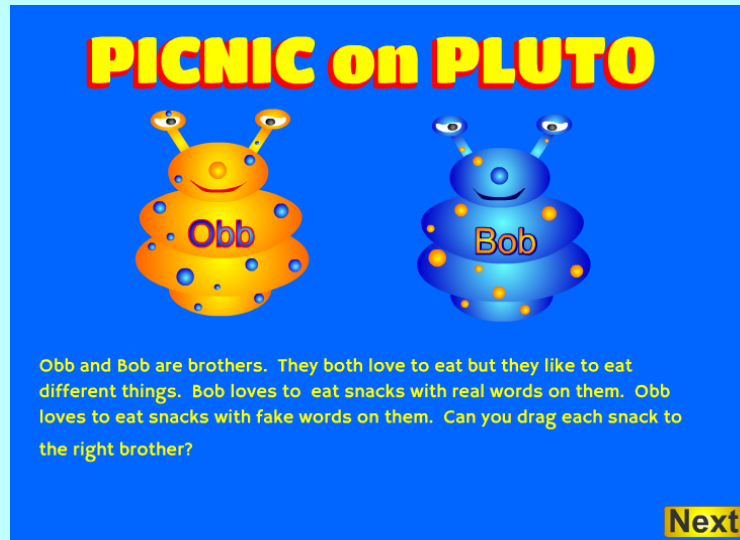

blew

'ew' (chew the stew)

chew
screw
knew
flew

Can you help me sort the alien and real words into Obb and Bob?

 <https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/PicnicOnPluto.html>